ACTION ALERT — ELECTION 2004

HOW YOU CAN GET INVOLVED

As we move toward this fall's crucial presidential election, NJ Peace Action needs you to help turn out the peace vote. You can do your part by pitching in on one of four committees formed as a result of our Tools for Democracy: Elections 2004 Training Day events. Anyone interested in joining one of these committees can contact the chair and they will be happy to put you to work.

The Getting Out The Vote Committee is focused on voter registration and once the Oct. 4 registration deadline passes, will shift to voter turnout on election day and an election night event (see calendar for details).

The Getting the Message Out Committee has already produced the Peace Message which lays out the "framework" for our issues work up through, including and even beyond the election and is also coordinating a Letters to the Editor campaign and making contact with other media to broadcast the Peace Message.
CONTACT: Mary Bell, mbonlbi@aol.com

The Voter Guide Committee has prepared/drafted the voter guide and is working, with other organizations, on distributing it as widely as possible.

The Street Fairs/Tabling Committee is the human interface of our Election 2004 effort. It puts the resources produced by the other committees to good use by going out into the community to gauge public opinion, talk to people on the issues, help collect completed registration forms and create awareness of NJ Peace Action.
